Council of Defense.

Medina county will do its "bit" in the purchase of Liberty Bonds if the plans of the local Council of Defense are carried out. At a meeting held at the courthouse Friday afternoon an active and aggressive campaign was mapped out, and the work of placing the bonds is now in full swing and will continue until the close of the campaign, October 27. A. M. Patterson of Devine was appointed salesman for the county. His duties will include a general direction of the activities of a number of local committee's and a supervision of the work throughout the county. Local committees were selected as follows:

Hondo—V. P. King, chairman; Horace Bradley, H. F. King, D. W. Short, C.
W. Gilliam, and O. H. Miller.

Devine—George W. Brown, chairman; W. S. Lilly, M. A. Keller, A. E.
Freteliere, and Henry Bendele.

Castroville—Louis, Scherrer, chairman; Fritz Rihn and H. F. Wurzbach.
Lacoste—H. C. Heilig, chairman; Ed.
Keller and Frank Keller.

D'Hanis—Louis Carle, chairman; Jos. Koch and Pete Koch Jr.

Yancey—J. W. McCaughan, chairman; J. P. Nixon, Dr. W. C. Cain, and H. W. Butts.

A large quantity of advertising matter and blank applications for the purchase of bonds has been distributed to the various committees and they are expected to divide the work so that a thorough canvass is made of each district.

The need of funds for the payment of the necessary expenses of the council, such as stationery, postage, telephone, etc., was again discussed, and each member of the council was instructed to raise $15.00 in his district.

L. W. Burrell was chosen as a delegate to the meeting of the State Council of Defense to be held in Dallas October 15.

In pursuance of a plan previously discussed, arrangements will be made for listing lands for tenants. Farmers desiring tenants will be requested to apply to the secretary of the council and an effort will then be made to secure a desirable tenant. In the same way, persons desiring to rent land may make application to the secretary, who will refer them to land owners. By thus bringing landlord and tenant together, mutual benefit will result, and the council will thereby accomplish the first work it has undertaken—to see that all lands in the county are planted and cultivated.

The council is now in correspondence with the State Council with a view of securing feed and seed for planting for farmers. In this we have the co-operation of the State Department of Agriculture, and it is confidently hoped that a practical solution of this problem will result in the immediate future.

L. J. BRUCKS, Secretary.
Hondo, Texas, October 6.

Card of Thanks.

In this manner we wish to acknowledge the debt of gratitude we owe to our friends and neighbors for their untiring assistance and unbounded sympathy shown us on the death of dear wife and mother. We also wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the many beautiful floral offerings that bedecked her last resting place. May our Heavenly Father reward them for their kindness as the prayer of C. H. FUOS AND CHILDREN.

Appreciation.

Now that I have been called into the army and consequently cannot serve you longer as public weigher, I wish in this public manner to express to the voters of my precinct my sincere appreciation of the confidence and consideration shown me while in office. No matter what fate may have in store for me in the future the friendship and esteem of the people who have known me throughout my entire life will be my most cherished recollection.

Yours most gratefully,
GEORGE SCHUEHLE.

Hondo Public School Notes.

W. T. M. A. 6—H. H. S. 61.

The foot ball boys of the West Texas Military Academy met the team of Hondo High, on the local gridiron last Friday. Within the first three minutes of play Hondo made the first touchdown. At intervals throughout the duration of the game, they repeated this performance until—when the last whistle blew and the "songs had been sung"—they had scored nine touchdowns and failed to kick only two goals.

W. T. M. A. scored in the third quarter, but failed to kick goal.

Results of the game:
(a) Score, W. T. M. A. 6—H. H. S. 61.
(b) Several black eyes and a peeled nose.

(c) West Texas full back, E. Rothe came back to H. H. S.

(d) "Red" Carter decides to come to school.

The High School team is rather light, but quick and accurate, thus proving that the efficient coaching of C. N.
Wilkinson has "hit its mark".

The next game will be Saturday, Oct. 13, against Uvalde High School on the local field, after which the team will go to Cotulla, and also return the Uvalde game before playing another at home.

Since last report, six pupils have enrolled and one withdrawn from the enrollment.

Work in the classes is progressing rapidly and much interest is taken in the subjects by both, teachers and students.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS MAKE HIGH SALARIES.

If the average student, who absents himself from high school on account of some trifling incident, ever realized that he was making exactly $92.50 in cash for every day in attendance, there would be a perceptible decrease in the list of absentees reported. If all students were aware that every forty-five-minute period was worth $13.25 to them, there would be less inclination to "cut" class. And if they thought of the 30 cents lost by every minute's inattentiveness in class, it is only reasonable to suppose that this realization might make a difference in their application.

As hard as they are to believe, these figures are approximately correct and based upon the actual earning capacity of a high school graduate as compared with the actual earned income of the average person who leaves school after completing a grammar school course.
The figures appeared in a recent publication, as a plea to young men and women to continue their education. To stop high school would not be patriotism, but foolishness. The country calls, not only for soldiers, but also for a trained and educated youth.—Express.

Mrs. Anna Fuos.

Mrs. Anna Fuos (nee Anna Balzen) a brief mention of whose death appeared in last week's Anvil Herald, was born July 2, 1879; was married to Christian H. Fuos September 23, 1896; died at Physician and Surgeon's Hospital, San Antonio, October 4, 1917.

No death has occurred in this county in many a long day that has caused more profound regret than the passing of this native daughter of the county.
Born and reared here she had a large circle of devoted friends who will hold her in fond remembrance until they too have passed through the portals and joined her in her celestial home where parting is unknown.

Besides her husband she is survived by two children, one son, Walter, who is bookkeeper at the Farmers' Union Warehouse, one daughter, Ella, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Balzen, three brothers and two sisters, all of whom are bowed in grief over her untimely demise.

Her body was laid to rest in the new cemetery at Quibi last Friday afternoon, October 5th, at 4:00. Rev. Aug.

large number of life-long friends surrounding the grave attested the universal esteem in which she was held by those who knew her best.

the grief of the bereaved ones is the prayer of the host of friends of the family.

TERRACING.

T. N. LEE, COUNTY AGENT.

Although this has been a hard year, yet we find that in the low places in the fields, some crops have been made, while on the higher places where the water run off before it had time to soak in, there are no crops at all. Now, it stands to reason that if the water could be held on the higher places and not allowed to run off so fast that crops could have been made there as well as on the low places. The utilization of the rain that falls is one of the biggest if not the biggest problems that confronts any country with a scant rainfall. And as moisture is the limiting factor in crop production in this section, this one thing should receive a great deal of attention.

The solution of the problem is the terrace. A terrace is a ridge of dirt thrown up in such a manner, so tha instead of allowing the water to run off down the hill side, it is carried around the hill or slope. The terrace is given a fall of about three or four inches to a hundred feet. When a shower falls all of it will soak in. And when a heavy rain comes there will be enough fall to drain the land, keeping the crop from being drowned out, and at the same time carrying the water off slowly. The water is given a chance to soak in, and is also kept from washing the best soil away and leaching out the plant foods.

A great deal of land in cultivation in this County needs terracing. If it isn't to keep the land from washing it is to keep the water from running off. Now is the time to do this work. I have a level and will be glad to assist anyone wishing to conserve the soil and moisture.

Note: Mr. Lee also vaccinates cattle for black-leg. No charge is made for vaccine or work. Any one having calves needing vaccination see him.

A Letter From Washington

The Food Administrator Writes Us:

"The use of baking powder breads made of corn and other coarse flours instead of patent wheat flour is recommended by the Conservation Division of the Food Administration. The wheat needed for export is thus conserved, and at the same time healthful food for our own people is provided. The circulation of recipes providing for these uses would be of assistance in carrying out our plans."

The following recipes for Corn Bread and Rye Rolls save wheat flour and make attractive and wholesome food for every day when made with

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

CORN BREAD

1 1/2 cups corn meal
1/2 cup flour
2 level teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Mix thoroughly dry ingredients; add milk and melted shortening; beat well; pour into well greased pan and bake in hot oven about 25 minutes.

Our red, white and blue booklet "Best War Time Recipes" containing additional similar recipes sent free on request. Address Royal Baking Powder Company, Dept. F, 155 William Street, New York.

RYE ROLLS

2 cups rye flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 level teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Mix dry ingredients together; add milk and melted shortening. Knead on floured board; shape into rolls. Put into greased pan and allow to stand in warm place 20 to 25 minutes. Bake in moderate oven 25 to 30 minutes.

Corporal and Mrs. Frank Haller were here Sunday on a visit to Corporal Haller's sister, Mrs. Edwin Bendele. He has been stationed at Leon Springs but left Tuesday with his company for Brownsville where they go to relieve the National Guard previously stationed there but who will be moved to one of the training camps, probably to Camp Bowie, Fort Worth.

Rev. Henry Jordan and Mrs. Jordan left Thursday morning for Mason, Texas. The reverend gentleman has served the German Methodist Church at New Fountain for the past year and went to Mason to attend the annual conference, that also being his home town. Altogether he has served the New Fountain church seven years and four months, and has a large circle of friends, both among the members of his church and the public generally who regret the departure of both Mr. Jordan and his estimable wife, as he will not return to the work, he having determined to retire from the active ministry. Bishop Morrison will preside over the conference at Mason.

Arthur and Frank Jungman, the former a student at the A. & M., the latter a student at Rice in Houston, in letters to Hometown say that they are receiving strenuous military training these days. The boys requested Mr. Jungman to examine their bank balances and instructed him to invest all balances found in their favor in Liberty Loan Bonds and their instructions will be complied with. This action on the part of these boys should be a pointer to other boys. It is probable that a number of Hondo boys have saved up snug little sums for they, as a rule, are a frugal lot, and they could not possibly find a better investment than in a Liberty Bond. These bonds are issued in denominations as low as $50, and as high as $10,000, are non-taxable, bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, paid semi-annually at your post office. What better investment could one find?

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Schneider and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jungman, a very handsome, industrious young farmer whose family has for many years occupied prominence in the affairs of the county.

Frank Helmke.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Helmke were deeply grieved Thursday morning when it became known that their son, Frank, passed away Wednesday night.
 Frank had reached the age of 12 years and 7 months. Sunday evening he was stricken with appendicitis and despite all that surgical science could do his bright young life came to a close Wednesday night.
 The body of little Frank was tenderly laid to rest in the New Fountain cemetery Thursday evening, the Rev. Gus Bannink of Houston conducting the services.
 The Anvil Herald and a host of other friends deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Helmke in their bereavement.

THE BRAVE AT HOME.

The maid who binds her warrior's sash
 With a smile that we'll her pain dissembles.
 One starry tear-drop hangs and trembles.
 Though heaven alone records the tear,
 And fame shall never know her story.
 Her heart has shed a drop as dear
 As e'er bedewed the field of glory!
 The wife who girds her husband's sword,
 And little ones who weep or wonder,
 And heavenly speaks the cheering word,
 What though her heart be rent asunder, Doomed nightly in her dreams to hear
 The bolts of death around him rattle, Hath shed as sacred blood as e'er
 Was poured upon the field of battle!
 The mother who conceals her grief
 While to her breast her son she presses,
 Then breathes a few brave words and brief,
 Kissing the patriot brow she blesses,
 With no one but her secret God
 To know the pain that weighs upon her,
 Sheds holy blood as e'er the sod Received on freedom's field of honor!

CHINESE ARE DRILLED HERE

Refugees From Mexico, Given Asylum at Columbus, N. M., Formed Into Regiment by Army Officer.

A Chinese regiment is being drilled in the United States which could answer a call to the colors at any time. The regiment is composed of the Chinese refugees from Mexico who accompanied General Pershing's troops out of the Southern republic. As the exclusion act prohibited them from being admitted to the United States, they were given asylum at Columbus, N. M., and are being fed by the Chinese relief society formed by the Chinese tongs of San Francisco.

As these Chinese refugees have no work to do they have been formed into military companies by Major Parker of the local military command, and they are put through daily drills, using sticks for guns. The Chinese have become proficient in the manual of arms and the more simple drills and make a presentable appearance while at drill.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER

Grease the cup in which you measure molasses and every drop of molasses will come out.

When fruit leaves a stain on the teeth it should be removed at once by rubbing on a little salt.

When boiling a custard add about half a teaspoonful of cornstarch; this will insure its not burning.

When you use enamel articles for the first time grease them and they are not so likely to chip.

A little ball of sealing wax on the end of a knitting needle will keep the knitting from sliding off.

A tiny amount of lemon juice added to cream while whipping will help it to "fluff" more rapidly.

The dishcloth is a poor thing with which to wipe pots and pans; it is not free from soap and grease.

Rhubarb Turnovers.

Make a little good pastry, roll out to thickness of a quarter of an inch. Stamp it out in rounds from four to six inches in diameter, lay upon one-half of the pastry a little young rhubarb cut small or a little stewed. Add sugar to taste and sprinkle a little powdered ginger over the fruit.

Turn pastry over, pinch edges closely together and brush the turnovers with white of egg. Sprinkle a little powdered white sugar over them, bake in tins in a brisk oven about 20 minutes.

ENGLAND SAVING ITS RAGS

London Alone Is Expected to Furnish 5,000,000 Pounds Before Collection Is Finished.

Rag collecting on a nation-wide house-to-house basis is being organized by the British government through the national service department. London alone is expected to furnish 5,000,000 pounds of rags before the campaign is over.

The official title of the new movement is the "national house-to-house rag collection." A woman organizer is being appointed for every district of every important town, and she will enlist the services of boy scouts and other volunteers as collectors. A corps of woman workers will make house-to-house calls to explain the campaign to housewives and enlist their help.

"Every woman who throws away rags is helping the enemy," says the committee's appeal. "Every square inch of rag which contains cotton can be made into paper. Every scrap of rag which is made of wool can be turned into new clothes."

Trebled In Ten Years

In Ten Years the Cost of Government in Texas Has Increased From About 8 Million to over 25 Million Dollars a Year. Yet the Population Has Increased Only About 20%.

How Do You Like This, Mister Farmer?

Where do you suppose all this money goes? (Who do you suppose gets it? Do YOU receive any benefits from it? If not, who does?)

These questions and many others of vital interest to Texas taxpayers will be answered by Senator John G. Willacy in

FARM and RANCH

The Farm Paper of the Southwest

Senator Willacy's sensational story "The Heavy Hand of Invisible Rule" will begin in the Oct. 20 issue of FARM AND RANCH. It is written in fiction form, but it will throw the searchlight of cold facts on all the new departments, soft jobs, traveling expenses, salary grabs and other rank extravagances of the invisible forces that control our state Government, and which you have to pay for.

It will show you clearly why and how the cost of governing Texas has trebled since 1907. It is something you ought to know. It begins in the Oct. 20th issue. Don't miss it.

For Nearly Forty Years

FARM AND RANCH has been gathering and publishing facts and experiences of immense value to the farmers and stockmen of the Southwest. Its editorial staff and regular contributors are men with thorough scientific knowledge and long practical experience in agriculture. It will show you how to make your farm more productive. Waste in Munition Plants.

It is estimated that the accumulated waste at the war munition plants and factories in England amounts daily to a sum of at least $5,000,000. Much of this is recovered by the salvage corps of commerce, but a large portion is left to rot and rust. A proposal has been made to organize the 14,500 parishes in England and Wales for the prevention of waste.

 "When I saw him last, he was growling under it."

Dog Houses on Hotel Roof.

At the Biltmore hotel carpenters are at work building little dog houses on the roofs for the lap woof-woofs which women bring to New York city with them. There have been so many distressingly pathetic scenes in the hotel when Fido, the flea hound, has been taken from his mistress' adoring arms by a Senegambian dog protector and confined in the basement that the hotel management has decided to house the dogs properly and keep their owners in a cheerful mood.

The doghouse will have runways and little parked inclosures. If it rains they have a commodious inclosure; if the sun shines they can bask in the radiance of the day.

HIGHEST QUALITY AWARDS

Mothers' Club.

The Parent Teachers Assn. spent a busy afternoon at the school house Monday, Oct. 8th.

The year book read by Supt. shows there is work ahead.

The treasurer gave a good report, making the members feel on easy street, till the list for needed articles for the school was read. Then all took a long breath and promised to stand by and see these things installed. No one wonders why such an interest was manifested, when they learn that in order to make our school A, No. 1, of first class we must add apparatus and books to laboratory and library. We were glad to learn on what basis our school is classed. As many know, the high schools are divided into first and second class, and each class is divided into A 1, B 1 and B 2. We are B 1 of 1st class and our slogan for this year is A 1 of 1st class. In order to do this we must move forward or we go backwards—our credits will be nil and our curriculum lessened. It must not be.

To meet the financial requirements our committee is at work, and we have planned to put on an entertainment Wednesday evening before Thanksgiving as a beginning.

The interest shown by the mothers concerning the picture, records and work on trees, proves their loyalty to that committee.

A pennant is to be placed in the room of the grade which has the greatest number of parents present at club.

Mrs. Jungman was elected delegate to the Annual Child Welfare Conference to be held at Houston, Nov. 21st to 24th.

The programme, with Mrs. Meyer as leader, was an interesting one. The subject "Self-government vs. Government by Authority". Mrs. Monkhouse followed leader with an able paper, showing much study.

Suffice it is to say that each of the following responded with good thought and appreciation of the subject in hand—Prof. Peeler, Mrs. Jessie Newton, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Tom McClaugherty, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Liles, Mrs. Horger, and Mrs. Cochrell.

Airplanes Stop Here.

Airplanes Nos. 532 and 533, commanded by Majors Burwell and Head, en route from San Antonio to Eagle Pass, landed here about 10:30 last Sunday and stayed about one hour. Before landing they circled over the southern part of the town, gradually descending until they finally settled to the earth on the Scmitt farm about one-half mile southwest of town. When the people realized that the planes were going to light a general exodus from the town started, people in automobiles, buggies, horseback, afoot—all flocked for the landing place, these being the first of Uncle Sam's aircraft to ever stop here and all being anxious to examine them at close range. After a stop of about one hour, during which time minor repairs were made on the engine on plane 533, they again gracefully took to the air and after circling until they had attained an altitude of about 4,000 feet, sailed off to the west. Aircraft flying over Hondo has been frequent this week, and it is probable that soon their visits will become too frequent to excite curiosity.

A union service was held at the Methodist Church Sunday evening in honor of the soldier boys who were called to the training camp at San Antonio Monday. A large audience was present and listened to patriotic addresses by Judge R. J. Noonan, who spoke in the interest of the Liberty Loan Bonds; County Superintendent W. N. Saathoff, who reviewed the history of wars and contended that the army that had right on its side was always victorious and predicted that the present war would be no exception; Rev. Mr. Long, in a short address admonished the boys to live clean, upright lives as becomes the citizen soldier of the country. A number of solos and quartets added a delightful evening's program. One that will long remain a pleasant memory with the boys who are now serving their country.

Lee Wins

By JANE OSBORN.

It was one of the cooler sort of rainy days in June, and half way up Mount Kenyon it was as cool and as dreary as March. The old, half-rotted corduroy road that led up and around the mountain side, so far from mending matters, served as a base for an artificial cascade down which the rain waters flowed in torrents. The weather might have cooled a less ardent spirit than that of Lee Bradstreet who, mounted on a pinto pony, and protected against the rain by means of a waterproof for herself and a rubber cover for her saddlebags, rode slowly on and up the mountain pass.

Though she was not disheartened she breathed a shade more easily when she heard the splash of a horse's feet around a curve in the road ahead of her. She stopped her pony and waited, not the least alarmed at meeting a stranger alone on so remote a road. Still there was immeasurable satisfaction in seeing, as he drew up beside her, that he was one of her own kind: youthful, clean-cut and undaunted.

"Hello!" was the man's first remark, something of surprise in his voice. "I never thought I'd meet a girl up here. I'm Martin Day, Bingham College, class of 1918."

"I'm from Bingham, too," said the girl in return. "I'm Lee Bradstreet."
"Great weather," he went on as their horses splashed through the torrents, and then, eying the girl intently, "I guess they pulled something over on me. I didn't dream there were going to be any girls in camp. But it will make it a lot more pleasant. Whose idea was it, I wonder?"

"Why, I don't know," replied the girl, not without a little confusion. "In fact, I don't know anything about the plan, any way. I simply came because I was sent for. I'd promised, you know, and I—well, I didn't want to back out."

"Gee, but you're plucky—and on a day like this. You have a fine nag there, too—takes these bad roads and torrents like a brick."

"Yes," the girl agreed. "I am very fond of Buster, though he doesn't really belong to me yet. But I am glad I could make use of him. You see, when I got that blank that they sent me, as they did to all the graduates of Bingham, in order to make a list of students that they could call on in case of national calamity, I didn't know just what I could do to help. Still I wanted to."

"Most of the girls put down nursing, I guess," commented the man as their horses, each encouraged at the companionship of another beast, easily ascended the pass through the rain with their burdens.

"But I knew I couldn't nurse," put in Lee, "so I couldn't put that down. You know what a list there was on those cards—and we were told to put a check after the things that we could do—farming, baby tending, motor-driving, telegraphy, typewriting, gardening, coast surveying and cooking. And there was a little note at the bottom of the card asking if we had a motorcar or other equipment that we could offer. Well, the only thing that I can do on the list is to cook—that's a dreadful confession from a college grad, isn't it?—and the only equipment I had was Buster. Buster really belongs to my brother, but he lets me use him. So I sent in my card all filled out and waited."

"And then you got your summons, I suppose," went on the man, who had been listening eagerly. "By the way, what did you say your name is?"

"Lee Bradstreet," repeated the man. "Sounds a lot like a man's name, don't you think so?"

"Perhaps; but I've known other girls named Lee." She was not especially interested in the discussion of her own name. "And so I started out, and you don't know how proud Buster and I shall be. My brother put up a bet that they wouldn't want me to help—said there wasn't anything a girl like me could do; and when he lost that bet, he put up another bet—that I'd be back before a week was up. He thinks girls haven't any pluck. So I was glad to come right away. The summons I got just told me to come with my horse and equipment and go to the lodge half-way up Mount Kenyon. And in the blank, marked 'Kind of Service,' it said 'Camp Cook.' I've been riding since morning. I do hope I can manage to satisfy them. I think the committee has done splendid work, don't you?"

"They have made a few mistakes," commented Martin. "It happens that I am alumni chairman of that committee and perhaps I didn't look into the names as carefully as I might have. In fact, Miss Bradstreet," he said, looking at her with a smile, "I've let one dreadful mistake get through there are not going to be any other girls, not even a chaperon."

"And I shall have to go back?" asked the girl.

"Of course it wasn't your fault," mused Martin, "and it is a shame to send you away."

"Couldn't you get a chaperon or something or couldn't I wear men's clothes? Oh, I shall be heartbroken if my brother knows that I was sent back and I shall lose the wager. The wager is Buster. He bet Buster, who really likes me much better than he does my brother, that I wouldn't stay. He said he would give him to me for keeps if I stuck it out."

Martin laughed sympathetically. "Too bad, little girl," he said. Then, "Perhaps we can manage some way. At any rate you can't go back home tonight, in all this rain, and it would take till long past dark to ride down the mountain to the nearest settlement. You see the truth is I thought you were going to be a man, and I wrote that notice asking you to meet me here today. I was coming down to meet you part way when I came upon you just now. The rest of the fellows don't come till tomorrow. I have been here for two days and the supplies for a week are all up in the lodge. I wanted to have you there to look them over and get things arranged before the others came. You were to be in charge of the kitchen with two or three of the fellows as your assistants. I'm sorry. Do you think you will be afraid to spend the night alone in the cabin there—I'll pitch a tent for myself outside, and in the morning I'll ride down the mountain side with you and you will be gone before the men get here. They need never know about tonight."

"Then I shall have to go in the morning?"

"Perhaps not," Martin answered. "Perhaps we can manage, but any way you'll be a good sport and help me get the kitchen things arranged tonight, won't you? And then I shall try to get a man cook afterward, though it won't be easy."

So Lee Bradstreet and Martin Day continued their way to the cozy lodge on the mountain side a mile beyond the spot where they had first met. There a fire was already burning that Martin had started that morning. The horses fed and under shelter for the night, and refreshed themselves by the cozy camp supper prepared by the enthusiastic new cook, they proceeded to spend the evening converting the lodge into a suitable camp kitchen and mess room. While Lee gave orders Martin put up racks and nails and shelves to facilitate the cooking, and together they counted and sorted the supplies and arranged tables and benches till, by nine o'clock, they were the best of all possible comrades. When the clock struck Martin called a halt.

"Time to bunk now," he announced abruptly. "You won't be afraid, will you? My tent is right outside your door, and there isn't a soul on the mountain. You are the pluckiest girl I know, and you're not going to dream about bears and wildcats, are you?"

She shook her head, but not emphatically. "But I shall have to go home tomorrow, shan't I?"

"I'll see, I am going to think over a plan. I'll tell it to you in the morning. If you agree, perhaps you can stay—and I am sure we need you."

They were sitting by the stove the next morning drinking coffee from agateware cups. It was 5:30, the time planned for breakfast at camp. Then it was that Martin reported on his night's cogitations.

"This is what I have decided," he announced. "If you were married to me it would be perfectly proper for you to stay here and cook. It would be the most natural thing in the world. I can't think of any other way out of it. There is a parson next door to the station. We could go and get married this morning before the crowd comes in. And then you could be Mrs. Day while you were here."

"But what about after the camp broke up?" asked Lee, much interested.

"Well, if we didn't like the idea I suppose we could get the marriage annulled," said Martin. "But I know one thing. If I can't marry a girl just exactly like you I don't want to marry at all. And I don't believe there is another girl exactly like you anywhere. I'd be willing to take the chance."

Lee's blue eyes beamed with happiness.

"I'll take the chance," she said. "Because I don't ever want to marry anyone else, either, and I do just dreadfully want to stay and be chief cook and I want to win Buster, too."

Worse Than War.

"You'll have to go to a dentist and get your teeth fixed, before we can take you," said the enlisting officer. "Gee Whiz! If I've got to suffer all that pain to go to war, I don't want to go."

This Woman had to be Lifted from Train to Carriage.

"I Never Saw or Heard of Anything to Equal Tanlac," says Son—Gains 15 Pounds and Can Now Walk
Two Miles Without Tiring.

"When my mother, who is sixty-four years old, came to my home thirty days ago, she was so weak I had to carry her in my arms from the train to the carriage, but she can now walk two miles without getting tired and this Tanalac has been worth all of one hundred dollars a bottle to her," was the remarkable statement made by A. L.
McFether, a well known farmer living on R. F. D., No. 4, Mount Calm, Texas, while in the Old Corner Drug Store at Waco, a few days ago.

"For more than fourteen years", he continued, "Mother suffered from stomach trouble, and during all that time she had to live on the very lightest things she could get. She couldn't even drink sweet milk or eat meat of any kind, and the flimsy things she did eat often caused her terrible suffering.
She was badly constipated and was all the time taking something for that trouble. She was tired all the time, the least exercise would wear her completely out, and all during the day she had to lay down and rest. She suffered agony with pains in her sides and was so nervous and miserable she could hardly sleep at all. She took all kinds of medicines for years but she kept losing weight and getting worse all the time.

"I was alarmed about her when I met her at the train and found her so feeble. I had read and heard so much about Tanlac I decided for her to try it and the day she took her first dose she weighed only ninety-six pounds and was almost as weak as a kitten.
Well, Tanlac has simply made a new woman of her. She now weighs one hundred and eleven pounds and has actually gained fifteen pounds in the last thirty days. Some folks may doubt it, but it's the plain truth, she can walk two miles without getting tired.
I have never seen or heard of anything to equal Tanlac. Mother can eat anything she wants now and as much as she pleases without the least trouble afterwards and she sleeps as sound as a healthy baby every night. She is not the least bit constipated now and her nerves are as calm as a lamb. The pains have entirely left her sides and her strength and vitality is remarkable. Tanlac has restored her health in every way and I want everybody to know what it is that has relieved her of all those years of suffering and made a well woman of her."

Tanalac is sold in Hondo by W. H.
Windrow, in Devine by Lion Drug Store, in D'Hanis by Louis Carle, in LaCoste by Dickey Drug Co., and in Dunlay by Louis A. Haby.

campus ground. 6th, a duett was sung

Mackey. 7th, Mrs. M. J. Hodge spoke the club. 9th, Mrs. L. Taylor read a very interesting paper. 10th, a sewing club was organized for the benefit of the children. 11th, the president made an earnest appeal to the mothers, how important it was for them to meet often and do some needed work around about the school, such as getting the ground ready for fall gardens and flowers. 12th, last but not least, brother F. Pierce put the climax on by saying, we, as colored people, should not sit down and wait for other people to do things for us that we ought to do for ourselves; so he then said: let us come together Thursday, Oct. 4th, at the school house and do the work that is to be done there. He further said, our teacher soon will make her appearance and let's show her that we are proud of her return by what we do. This was applauded by all who heard him.

Some Hondo People Have Learned That Neglect is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that so often lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the "small" of your back; that urinary irregularity; those headaches and dizzy spells; that weak, weary, worn-out feeling, may be nature's warning of kidney weakness. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while there yet is time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proven kidney remedy. No need to experiment —Doan's Kidney Pills have been successfully used in thousands of cases of kidney trouble for over 50 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Read Hondo testimony:

Mrs. P. H. Renkin says: "I and others of the family have used Doan's Kidney Pills with the best of results.
My kidneys were disordered and didn't act as they should. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I tried them, and one box entirely removed the trouble.
I highly recommend them."

Cancer a Blood Disease.

Dr. O. A. Johnson, who has been pursuing scientific cancer research for a number of years was among the first investigators to announce cancer as a blood disease. The doctor has published a new illustrated book in which he explains the cause of cancer and describes symptoms in various locations and stages of development. Also many reports of cases treated during the past 17 years are given in evidence of the success of his method of treatment, which is entirely non-surgical. This valuable book ought to be in the hands of every cancer sufferer. For a free copy address Dr. O. A. Johnson, Suite 560, 1320 Main St., Kansas City, Mo.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Birthday Party.

On Sunday, October 7th, the young folks were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tschirhart, complimentary to their daughter, Lucile, on her birthday anniversary. The invited ones arrived at 7:00 p. m. with a box of beautiful birthday gifts, and good wishes were showered on the young Miss. The evening quickly passed away singing songs and playing old-fashioned games. All kinds of home-made cake and candy, fruit and refreshments were served throughout the evening. The cutting of the big birthday cake gave joy and laughter to all. The prizes drawn were: a silver thimble, by Florence Mangold; button, Elsie Ahr; silver heart, Eddie Bendele; wish bone, Jos. Schott; ring, Amos Biediger. At a late hour they all departed for their homes, wishing the honoree many more happy returns of the day. Those present were: Misses Lorine Wernette, Alice and Carrie Brieden, Florence Mangold, Cecilia Steine, Lizzie Kilborn, Elsie Ahr, Helen Renken, Frances Burell, Annie Frey, Bertha Ahr, Elenora Conrad, Lurline Whitehead, Sybilla Bendele and Lucile Tschirhart; Messrs. Josie and August Schott, Eddie Bendele, Harry Hans, Rudolph Tschirhart, Willie Oppelt, Julius Wurzbach, Richard Ahr, Archie Jagge, Amos Biediger and Ralph Tschirhart.

Quite a number assembled at the Lutheran Church here Monday night to witness the showing of the life of Dr. Martin Luther from the cradle to the grave, as exhibited and explained by Rev. Mr. Gokolin of Meyersville, Texas. The same was very much enjoyed and appreciated.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

3. Manalin, the ideal laxative, by the regular use of which constipation may be overcome and natural action restored. Manalin has no habit forming drug, but is an aid to nature.

Your druggist has all three. So many thousands have received benefit from the use of one or both these remedies that they are a recognized part of the equipment of every careful household.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used." For sale by all dealers.

M. D. McNutt has been transferred to Del Rio where he takes charge of that station as agent. We regret also to lose his good wife and young "Martin".

Sour Stomach.

If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Tuerpe and daughter, Miss Elsie, moved from Lytle to San Antonio, where they will in future reside.

For Chapped Skin.

Chapped skin whether on the hands or face may be cured in one night by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It is also unequalled for sore nipples, burns and scalds. For sale by all dealers.
